

Not Made for the Harbour (1/2)

Music and lyrics by Andy Flannagan

[INTRO]

|: E | E :|

[CHORUS]

E
 We are not made for the harbour
E
 We are made for the sea
A
 Though at times it's wild and cold and dark
B
 It's where we're meant to be
E
 You launch us out as a Father
E
 Though we may be tossed about
F#m
 But your presence in the storm
B E
 It walls us in and calls us out

[VERSE 1]

A B
 You left the safe port of heaven
C#m
 For the elements of earth
A B C#m
 This God at risk, exposed
A B
 Your lift our eyes to horizons
C#m
 Where that heaven brushes earth
A B
 So this worn world is transformed

Not Made for the Harbour (2/2)

[VERSE 2]

A B
You send us out to the market
C#m
Send us out to the field
A B C#m
Jesus' hope ambassadors
A B
We take no purse for the journey
C#m
But take your authority
A B
To declare that all is yours

[BRIDGE]

B A E
Out to the office, leaving his mark
B A E
Out to the factory, his Spirit the spark
B A C#m
Out to the school gates, and out to the bars
A C#m A B
May we risk what was never ours
